

AUSTIN NEIGHBORHOOD SPOTLIGHT: SOUTH LAMAR

South Lamar is a well-known Austin road spanning a little over three miles – from Lady Bird Lake to Ben White Boulevard. The area is booming with restaurants, bars, shops and food trailers, with more businesses popping up every day. South Lamar has been nicknamed SoLa (similar to South Congress' SoCo) and is quickly becoming just as iconic as the popular South Congress neighborhood. It is truly an authentically-Austin area that sets the city apart.

PLACES TO EAT

From new favorites to Austin classics, you're sure to satisfy your appetite at one of these can't-miss restaurants located along the boulevard. Whether you're looking for something healthy, sweet or savory, South Lamar has it all.

THINGS TO DO

No matter your mood or interests, you'll find something that piques your curiosity. South Lamar has day-to-night entertainment for the young and the young at heart.

Grab a drink and dance to live music or a DJ at The Highball. You can also rent one of their themed private karaoke rooms.

Attend a musical or play at the Zach Theatre. On top of the live performances, they also offer camps and classes, as well as various special events throughout the year.

DID YOU KNOW?

Peter Pan Mini-Golf is one of Austin's only mini-golf courses, and it is BYOB! You can bring a cooler (but no glass bottles) and drink while you play.

The business has been owned and operated by the same family since it started in 1948 and got a much-needed facelift in 2011 by local artist Cheryl Latimer.

Constantly growing and evolving, South Lamar is a sought-after area where businesses and real estate will continue to thrive.
